There will be time to socialize with other new parents after the program.

Every Child Ready to Read is an early childhood literacy program for children from birth to age five. Library staff will demonstrate ways to help children get ready to read, incorporating five activities: talking, singing, reading, writing and playing.

This program is also offered on Friday, 10:30 a.m. at the Alder location.

Social Justice Club for Youth

Date and Time: Wednesday, March 5 4:00 pm - 5:30 pm

Address: Mill Street Library, 1 Mill Street

The Social Justice Club is a chance for youth to connect with one another and discuss issues facing our society (i.e. poverty, bullying, climate change, inequity), with the goal of building kind communities where everyone feels a sense of belonging.

Children and youth ages 7 to 12 will meet every Wednesday from January 15 to March 5 from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

Through fun activities, participants will learn how to:

1. Collaborate with likeminded youth.
2. Develop the capacity to become a better world citizen.
3. Lead purposeful and fulfilling lives

Please register to attend. Healthy snacks may be provided, please let the facilitator know if a participant has any allergies.

Presented in partnership with the Puslinch Assembly of Bahai's.

Teen volunteers ages 15 to 17 are needed to help facilitate the club. Please contact teens@orangeville.ca

100% Certainty Book Club

Date and Time: Thursday, March 6 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: Mill Street Library, 1 Mill Street

Join Bethell Hospice and the Orangeville Public Library as we read and discuss books that explore themes of life, love and loss.

Our first book of the year is an oldie but a goodie – Wild: From Lost to Found on the Pacific Crest Trail by Cheryl Strayed.

At twenty-two, Cheryl Strayed thought she had lost everything. In the wake of her mother's death, her family sc attered and her own marriage was soon destroyed. Four years later, with nothing more to lose, she made the most impulsive decision of her life. With no experience or training, driven only by blind will, she would hike more than a thousand miles of the Pacific Crest Trail from the Mojave Desert through California and Oregon to Washington State — and she would do it alone.

Goodreads Choice Award Winner for Readers' Favorite Memoir & Autobiography (2012)

Copies of the book are available to borrow. Please register in advance. If registration is full, please contact libraryprograms@orangeville.ca to add your name to the waitlist.
