Books and Loose Parts

Date and Time: Wednesday, January 8 10:30 am - 12:00 pm

Address: Mill Street Library, 1 Mill Street

Explore the amazing world of loose parts inspired by children's stories with Alyson Pell from The Sunflower School.

For ages 2.5 to 6 years with a parent/caregiver.

Loose parts are materials that can be moved, carried, combined, redesigned, lined up, and taken apart and put back together in multiple ways. Loose parts' theory is about remembering that the best play comes from things that allow children to play in many different ways.

Expert in the Library - The Art of Adventure

Date and Time: Sunday, January 19 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm

Address: Mill Street Library, 1 Mill Street

In his visually striking presentation, Al Pace shares his personal journey of how canoeing wilderness rivers of the Northwest Territories over 45-years has influenced his creative process working in high-fired stoneware. From the big-sky, tundra landscapes north of the Arctic Circle to the rugged and raw peaks of the Mackenzie Mountains, Al's bold forms and layered glazes often reflect the textures and rhythms of this mysterious northern landscape. Al's life-journey combines his love of adventure with his passion for creating vessels with a distinctly Canadian flavour.

Al Pace

One of Canada's most accomplished Wilderness River Guides, Al has guided over 100 canoe expeditions on 26 northern waterways spanning thousands of river-miles. Al and his wife, Lin Ward, operate Canoe North Adventures from their Outfitting Centre and Lodge in Norman Wells, Northwest Territories. Al is also an accomplished Studio-Potter creating original high-fired stoneware vessels for more than 45-years from his Hockley Valley Studio and Home.
